What have we heard them say?

What can we imagine them saying?

something (such as a force, campaign, or movement) that is extremely large and powerful and cannot be stopped

a massive inexorable force, campaign, movement, or object that crushes whatever is in its path

: The peace of the village has been shattered by juggernauts thundering through it.

A newly repowered Juggernaut has returned to the Marvel universe as a hero. But even as a good guy, he proves is as dangerous as ever.

Cain Marko, better known as the Juggernaut, is a fictional character and supervillain from Marvel, being a long-running character in the X-Men franchise.

Cain Marko is the Juggernaut, a human transformed by the impossibly powerful artifact called the Crimson Gem of Cyttorak

The juggernaut pulled out from the cross street, faster than he ought, faster than you might think a juggernaut could start up

> "to attempt to influence or pressure by persuasion rather than by force or authority as in urging voluntary compliance with economic guidelines,

> > : a loyal supporter. party stalwarts [= people who support a political party very loyally]

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

POLITICAL

JUGGERNAUTS